 SANDOWN TOWN HISTORY *****

The first New Hampshire settlements were in Rye (1623), Dover (1628), Exeter (1638) and Hampton (1635). King William and Queen Mary of England gave a Grant of Land from the Hampton tract to Governor Benning Wentworth. The area was named Kingston. And from this parcel were located the towns of Danville, East Kingston, Kingston, and Sandown.

1736- The settlers came to the westerly section to make their homes. When the settlers insisted on becoming a township and have their own Meeting House their wish was granted. Sandown was incorporated on April 22, 1756. The town was named after Sandown on the Isle of Wight, off the coast of England, at Portsmouth.

1756- The first town meeting was held April 22, 1756.

1759- The Congregational Society was founded. A Meeting House was built for religious services and town meetings. Later, it seemed a new meeting house needed to be built. So, in 1773, this building was raised and the wood and pews were sold at venue.

1774- The present Old Meeting House was completed in October 1774. It is located on Fremont Road in its original structure.

1776- Fifty-nine men from Sandown served in the Revolutionary War.

1783- The parsonage was built on Fremont Road to house the Preacher and his family. On December 1, 1824, the parsonage was sold to Maenad and Honda (French) Hunks for the sum of $900.00. Several other denominations were forming and agreement as whom and when would use the Meeting House caused much dissension. Town meetings continued in the building.

1834- The first Methodist Society was founded July 9, 1834. Mostly, they met in homes for services.

1835- By request of Sandown residents, a post office was established to serve the town on September 8, 1835. Postal service was available whenever the Postmaster was in private homes, the Grain Store (formally Perrino's), at the Old Depot, in the corner of the grocery store (now a residence), and a building which was once a carriage shed on the Parsonage property. The little post office building is next door to the new post office facility.

1835- The Society built their own church naming it St. Matthew's United Methodist Church and held their first service in September 14, 1835.

1870- The Worchester-Nashua Railroad came through Sandown. The run was from Nashua to Plaistow to Rochester. Through the years following, the upkeep was costly and other means of transportation were being used. The depot was closed and railroad tracks taken up in 1935.

1900- The public telephone was installed in the Grain Store. The late Mrs. Merit Young became a telephone operator for Sandown and the company was housed in the former Parsonage, which was a boarding house at the time. The Chester Telephone Company bought out the business. Sandown was the first in the area to have dial phone service with the Chester Telephone Company.

1901- Sandown has its first Old Home Day (August- now an annual event)

1920- A Community Hall Association was formed for the purpose of building a new hall the Sanborn Hall (Grain Store) was unsafe. The Association sold 2000 cookbooks, held various fundraising activities and sold shares at $25.00 per share, borrowing the remaining $6,000.00.

1921- The Hall was dedicated November 21, 1921.

1929- The Hall was accepted by the Town of Sandown.

1930- The Old Meeting House Historical Association was formed to preserve and keep Sandown's historical heritage in good repair.

1932- Electricity was available in Sandown.

1948- The Angle Pond Associates was formed and the Station was built in 1948.

1948 - Sandown Volunteer Fire Department was organized- Now there were two groups Angle Pond Associates and Sandown Volunteer Fire Department.

1961- Fire Department combined the two groups and was known as the Sandown Volunteer Fire Dept.

1949- Town disposal area opened.

1954- The Sandown Central Elementary School was dedicated. The central building replaces two one-room schoolhouses (known as Pine Grove and Clark). The two classes in the new school served grades 1-4 and 5-8 with one teacher in each room. The kitchen was equipped by PTA (organized November 1948) and the activity room served as a dining hall. A bookcase, placed in the corner of the Grain Store was the beginning of a Library for the town. It was sponsored at first by the Sandown Grange. It branched out into the home of Ceila Chase and Jonathan Colby. The house changed hands and Agnes (Peers) Shaw, wife of Thomas R. Shaw, carried on as Librarian. After her death, the present Selectmen's Office became the new home of the Town Library.

1974- The new Library opens.

1977- Historical Society Museum opens.

1977- St. Michael's Mission of St. Ann's Parish in Hampstead began holding Church Services in the Sunday School room of St. Matthew's United Methodist Church on July 3, 1977.

1978- In the fall, the Sandown Historical Society and Museum was organized for the purpose of renovating the Old Depot. At the 1979 town meeting the Society was accepted and empowered the group to receive gifts, grants, documents or loans on the name of the Town or Society.

1980- An RFD route for the town residents was established March 1980.

1980- After many years of service, the need of a new, more serviceable building was proposed in November. The new fire station was built with volunteer help of the townspeople and minimal funds from the Town.

- 2002 – Angle Pond Fire Station was rebuilt. The Volunteer Fire Department asked the voters for $36,200 for materials to rebuild the station but thanks to all the volunteers it was built using less than $25,000.00 returning over $11,000.00 back to the taxpayers.
- 2004- Fire Chief position is voted to become full time due to towns growing population. Library increases their hours due to same reason.
- 2006- Fremont Road Bridge rehabilitation project was completed.

2007- Board of Selectmen increased from a three member board to a five member board.

2008 – Fire Chief Irving Bassett retires with 50 years of service to the Town. Sandown has hired a Department of Public Works Director, Arthur Genualdo. The voters passed the purchase of the Therese Minton 138 acre parcel on Fremont Road to be incorporated into the existing Town Forest and the voters passed an Ethics Policy.

2009- The Town operated on a default budget this year. The new Recreation Building was turned over to the town in November and is expected to go on-line in 2010. The Town Clerk's Office gained permission from the voters to accept tax payments via credit cards.

2010 – The Edward C. Garvey Recreation building had its official dedication ceremony this year and opened to the public. The Local Energy Commission was formed this year and began analyzing energy usage in municipal buildings with the intent to lower energy consumption and costs for both the town buildings and homeowners. Voters passed the purchase of a new furnace for the Town Hall, a new forestry/utility vehicle for the Fire Department and established a Town Disaster Management Expendable Trust Fund to supplement costs in the event of a future disaster.

2011 – Sandown North School was the only New Hampshire school to be organized as a Blue Ribbon School. The Old Home Day Committee became a town committee and had amusement rides for the first time. A Senior Affairs Transportation Committee was formed to facilitate transportation for seniors and disabled residents. Eleanor Bassett semi-retires from running the Sandown Food Pantry after more than 40 years of service to needy residents.

2012 – October 13, 2012, Sandown lost one of its most revered and respected residents: Irving C. Bassett. Irving was a lifelong resident of Sandown and was best known for his volunteer service to the Sandown Fire Department which totaled 56 years. He also served as Fire Chief and Town Forest Warden for 24 years. Remarkable achievements for an even more remarkable man. In August of 2012, Kenneth Sherwood, long standing building inspector, code enforcement officer, electrical inspector and health officer/septic inspector resigned from all positions after 20+ years of service. As a result of his resignation the building department was reorganized and the Selectmen hired 3 new inspectors to fill the positions.

2013 – November 20, 2013 Eleanor Bassett passed away peacefully at her lifelong home. Her greatest contribution to the Town included founding the Community Food Pantry. She helped and influenced more people than she realized and is deeply missed every day.

The Selectmen's office relocated into the building department/planning office with those offices moving into the Selectmen's office.

2014 – Fire Station was dedicated to Irving C. Bassett with the firefighter memorial being complete. Town purchased 460 Main Street for new Police Building.

2015- The new Police Station was completed and the Police Department moved into the building in early summer. Phillips Road Bridge was closed by the NHDOT due to an unsafe load capacity. Old Home Day Committee moved the date and location of their event to the fall and to the Recreation building.

2016- The presidential race brought excitement to our little town with a visit from New Jersey Governor Chris Christie who arrived shortly after announcing his run for office. We also welcomed Carly Fiorina and now president Donald J. Trump. The residents are a proud owner of a 2015 Spartan ladder truck with the help from a grant received from the US department of Homeland Security's Assistance to Firefighters Grant program.

2017- The Town lost one of its lifelong residents, David Drowne. Dave was a long-time Trustee of the Trust Funds and held many other positions in the town over the years and he will be greatly missed.

The voters approved the all veterans tax credit in the amount of $500 which allows additional veterans to qualify for the tax credit. The voters also approved retrofitting the Central Fire Station rear garage to accommodate an emergency vehicle.

2018 - This year the town operated on a default budget, however, some improvements were made including a new roof on the central Fire Station, a stand by generator at Town Hall paid for by FEMA funds and a new ambulance which was funded by savings in a Capital Reserve Fund. The voters approved 2 new compactors for the transfer station and approved the operation of KENO within the town. The voters also approved the creation of a Heritage Commission and Heritage Fund. The Liberty Tree planted for the 250th celebration was showing signs of disease and failing and was eventually replaced with a Princeton Elm which is a hardier and native tree to New Hampshire.
